Announcements

I want to thank everyone who responded to our last eTORUS with emails and contributions—both your kind and encouraging words, and your financial support, help make this work possible. Also, our holiday special is still in effect—our 5-DVD lecture set plus the 3-volume compendium The Alphabet in Genesis for $199.95, available on our secure-server website, www.meetingtent.com. For more information on our books and DVDs, see the last page of this newsletter.

Update on The Complementarity of Mind and Body . . .

We received our bound copy of The Complementarity of Mind and Body: Realizing the Dream of Descartes, Einstein, and Eccles, edited by Dr. Richard Amoroso, which includes Stan's chapter on the Meru research, "Linguistic Cosmology." We plan to review some of the other contributors' chapters in the coming months. The best price we've found for this book is $89, from Amazon.com (this includes free shipping from Amazon). To help Meru at the same time, order through our direct link to Amazon: see below.

Six Model Hands Form the 3,10 Torus Knot and the Shushon Flower

A. The 3,10 torus knot

- B. The six Model Hands (line width) of the 3,10 torus knot
- C. Computer image showing 3,10 torus knot rotating to appropriate view
- D. The pair of "Green Hands" from the 3,10 torus knot
- E. One Hand doubled, and the two morphed together to form a Shushon double-lily vortex
- F. The assembly of three double-lily vortex florets into—

G. The Shushon Flower

The root Shush or Shish means six; i.e., sixfold, and the number 6; thus, a flower with six “florets,” or a figure with six turns. In Six Model Hands Form the 3,10 Torus Knot and the Shushon Flower, on the previous page, note that the “globular” basket form of the 3,10 torus knot shown in (A) also has a sixfold quality (visually, three “strands” emerging from the center on the top, mirrored by three “strands” returning to the center on the bottom). The relationship between the Shushon Flower and the 3,10 torus knot was key to the identification of the First Hand model as the source of the letters.

Six Model Hands Form the 3,10 Torus Knot and the Shushon Flower illustrates how both the 3,10 torus knot and the Shushon Flower are formed by six flame-vortices (our “model hands”), stepping through the entire process. Both the 3,10 torus knot and the Shushon Flower are arrangements of “six-around-one,” just as is called for in the first word of Genesis: Bara Shis, “Created six.”

The inversion of the 3,10 torus knot to the Shushon Flower parallels the inversion of a point-sphere (the Shushon Flower) into a sphere-point (the “idealized fruit”).

At right is Point-Sphere to Sphere-Point, one part of Figure 8.2, The Tree in the Garden Through the Dimensions, from The Alphabet that Changed the World.

A point-sphere is like a seed: all of its life potential is inside, ready to unfurl. Thus, in the point-sphere, all six hands point inward.

The sphere-point takes the form of a fruit: it’s an inversion of the seed, and like a fruit, it appears in the world with all of its features (all the fingers of its six hands, i.e., “leaves and branches”) on the outside. It is as if the point-sphere in the center grows on the tetrahelical tree of the central column, and displays the sphere-point as six hands holding the fruit.
